CONEMAUGH VALLEY MEMORIAL HOSPITAL
SCHOOL OF RADIOLOGIC TECHNOLOGY

STUDENT RIGHT TO KNOW
Track Record Disclosure Form

Conemaugh Valley Memorial Hospital School of Radiologic Technology program is eligible for TITLE IV student assistance programs. In order to maintain eligibility, we comply with the United States Department of Education regulations concerning disclosure requirements. These requirements state that prior to a student's enrollment in a program, the institution may provide the prospective student statistics on completion rates of students in the program, pass rates of graduates on the certification exam, job placement rates of graduates and any other pertinent information necessary to substantiate claims made by an institution regarding its program of study.

To help you make a good decision about whether to enroll in the School of Radiologic Technology, Conemaugh Valley Memorial Hospital wants you to be aware of the following information regarding this school. All numerical data is based on current statistics.

I. 43% or 6 of 14 radiologic technology students enrolled in this program completed the program and graduated in 2012.

II. Graduate surveys were mailed to the most recent graduates in February of 2013 (Six-month Graduate Survey). Input from this survey is used to update the school's employment data. 100% or 6 of the 6 graduates of 2012 responded to the graduate survey.

III. 50% or 3 of the 6 graduates in 2012 secured employment as radiologic technologists.

IV. In our locality, the starting hourly wage for graduated technologists in this field is between $18.00 - $20.00. Nationally, the average wage was around $24.16.

IV. All graduates of the school are eligible to take the National Registry Examination given by the American Registry of Radiologic Technologists. All individuals must pass this examination in order to perform radiologic procedures on a routine basis as a registered radiographer.

V. 100% or 6 of the 6 graduates of 2012 who took the ARRT registry examination successfully passed the examination.

A copy of Campus Security Statistics is available upon request. This information is provided at orientation.

For additional information or clarification of school statistics or outcomes, contact the Director, School of Radiologic Technology at (814)534-9582.

I have read and understand the information provided in accordance with the Student Right To Know Act.

_____

Please print your name

_____

Signature Date